

Personal Protective Equipment

Masks

Protect nose and mouth to prevent inhaling germs or chemicals in the air.

Gloves

Protect hands from exposure to body fluids or from contact with contaminated items or surfaces.

Protective Glasses

Protect eyes from contact with germs, body fluids, and chemicals.

Gowns

Protect your skin and clothing from germs and hazards in splashes.

Wear a mask:

- When you or others have a respiratory illness
- When you are exposed to chemical fumes

Wear gloves:

- When using cleaning products
- When changing diapers or assisting with toileting
- When you may be exposed to body fluids

Wear protective glasses

- When you could be exposed to chemicals
- When you could be exposed to infectious germs

Wear a gown:

- When you're likely to be exposed to body fluids
- When you're likely to be exposed to hazardous splashes

Protect yourself.
Protect others.